Transfer Form - Transfer on Death Registration - Beneficiary Designation

This form is to designate or change your Transfer on Death (TOD) beneficiary(ies) on the applicable account (identified by the Holder Account Number). This TOD account will be subject to the New Horizon Transfer TOD RULES, which are supplied with this form. Please note that the name(s) of the TOD beneficiary(ies) will not appear on your account registration. The account registration will note "TOD ON FILE".

Please complete the "Beneficiary Designation" section of this form as follows:

1. Provide the beneficiary details requested for each beneficiary and clearly assign the percentage each such beneficiary is to receive. Such percentages must be whole numbers only (no fractional percentages).
2. If you do not assign percentages to your primary and contingent (if any) beneficiary(ies), then New Horizon Transfer will treat the percentages as equal.
3. If you have more than two primary or two contingent beneficiaries, then provide a separate page that is signed, dated and includes all of the beneficiary information requested on the form with respect to your beneficiary designation(s). As used herein, "primary beneficiary" means an individual or other entity named in a TOD registration that is to receive the securities in the account upon the death of the last surviving security owner if, and only if, such beneficiary has survived all security owners. As used herein, "contingent beneficiary" means an individual or other entity named in a TOD registration that is to receive the securities in the account upon the death of the last surviving security owner if, and only if, there is no surviving primary beneficiary or beneficiaries.
4. The total primary beneficiary percentage allocation and the total contingent beneficiary (if any) percentage allocation must EACH equal 100%.
5. The beneficiary designation(s) made herein supersede(s) any and all prior beneficiary designations that you have made with respect to this account. If you later wish to remove, change or add beneficiaries, you must complete a new "Transfer Form – Transfer on Death Registration – Beneficiary Designation", listing all beneficiaries and their respective percentages.

Please note that in offering TOD registrations, New Horizon Transfer Inc is not providing, and does not intend to provide, any legal advice in relation to TOD registrations under applicable state laws. As TOD registrations affect the disposition of the security owner's property at death, you should consult with your attorney or tax advisor to ensure that any such registration is consistent with your estate planning and tax planning objectives.

TOD RULES

New Horizon Transfer has developed these TOD rules (the "Rules") that establish the terms and conditions under which it will receive and accept requests for TOD registrations and administer such registrations. The below may be amended from time to time.

Registration in TOD Form. Any security owner eligible under Rule 1 hereof to set up a TOD registration, may request such registration in TOD form by providing: (a) an endorsement of the security owner(s) (with acceptable medallion signature guarantee) and instructions designating the TOD beneficiary or beneficiaries; or (b) to the extent that any such security owner is otherwise eligible. With respect to each TOD account that is established pursuant to these Rules, a written statement, which will include the name of and the percentage of ownership for each TOD beneficiary, and whether each beneficiary is "primary" or "contingent," will be sent to the security owner on an annual basis, and will also be available, at any time, upon the security owner's request.

Permitted TOD Beneficiaries. An individual or other entity, including, without limitation, trusts, guardianships and corporations, may be a TOD beneficiary. A security owner(s) may name one or more primary beneficiary or beneficiaries and one or more contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries in his, her or their instruction(s) designating the TOD beneficiary or beneficiaries. A security owner(s) is not required to designate any contingent beneficiary or beneficiaries in a TOD registration. As used herein, "primary beneficiary" means an individual or other entity named in a TOD registration that is to receive the securities in the account upon the death of the last surviving security owner if, and only if, such beneficiary has survived all security owners. As used herein, "contingent beneficiary" means an individual or other entity named in a TOD registration that is to receive the securities in the account upon the death of the last surviving security owner if, and only if, there is no surviving primary beneficiary or beneficiaries.

UTMA/UGMA Custodians as Beneficiaries. Custodians under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act are permitted to be TOD beneficiaries; however, custodians under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act are not permitted to be TOD beneficiaries.

Percentages of Designated Beneficiaries. At the security owner's option, he, she or they may assign unequal percentages among multiple primary or contingent beneficiaries, but each percentage for each such beneficiary must clearly be stated in the security owner's written instructions. The total of all percentages for each of primary and contingent beneficiaries must equal 100%. If the assigned percentages do not equal 100%, or if the security owner's instructions regarding the same are unclear, then New Horizon Transfer will treat multiple beneficiaries as owning equal percentages.

Change or Revocation of TOD Registration. Change or revocation requires: (a) an endorsement by the security owner(s) (with acceptable medallion signature guarantee) (i.e., the security must be in proper form for transfer) and instructions indicating either a new form of registration or designating a new TOD beneficiary or beneficiaries; or (b) to the extent that any such security owner is otherwise eligible, an instruction letter is to be provided. A TOD registration may not be changed or revoked by will, codicil, telephone conversation or other communication, written or oral. Until the security owner(s) dies, the TOD beneficiary or beneficiaries has/have no rights in or with respect to the security. A written statement, which will include the name of and the percentage of ownership for each TOD beneficiary, and whether each beneficiary is "primary" or "contingent," will be sent to the security owner upon the addition, removal or modification of any TOD beneficiary with respect to such security owner's TOD account.

Transfer to Designated TOD Beneficiary or Beneficiaries on Notice of Death of Security Owner(s). Transfer requires: (a) an endorsement by the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries (with acceptable signature verification) and (b) an original, or a certified copy of the death certificate of the owner(s) and (c) any inheritance tax waivers required or any other documents required by New Horizon Transfer for transfers under its then current procedures or other evidence acceptable to New Horizon Transfer with respect to the beneficiary or beneficiaries and death of the owner(s).

Upon the death of the security owner (or, if co-owners, then upon the death of the last surviving security owner), the security or securities shall be transferred as follows: (a) if a single primary beneficiary has been designated, then the security or securities shall be transferred to the surviving primary beneficiary; (b) if multiple primary beneficiaries have been designated, then the security or securities shall be transferred to the surviving beneficiaries in the percentages as stated in the security owner's request for each such primary beneficiary (if no such percentages are stated, then New Horizon Transfer will treat multiple beneficiaries as owning equal percentages; (c) if a single primary beneficiary does not survive, then the security or securities shall be transferred to the surviving contingent beneficiaries in the percentages as stated in the security owner's request for each such contingent beneficiary (if no such percentages are stated, then New Horizon Transfer will treat multiple beneficiaries as owning equal percentages; (d) if multiple primary and contingent beneficiaries have been designated, and no primary beneficiary survives, then the security or securities shall be transferred to the surviving contingent beneficiaries in the percentages as stated in the security owner's request for each such contingent beneficiary (if no such percentages are stated, then New Horizon Transfer will treat multiple beneficiaries as owning equal percentages; (e) if one of multiple primary beneficiaries does not survive, then the security or securities shall be transferred to the surviving primary beneficiaries in the proportion that their respective securities bear to each other; and (f) if one of multiple contingent beneficiaries does not survive, then the security or securities shall be transferred to the surviving contingent beneficiaries in the proportion that their respective securities bear to each other.

Beneficiary or Beneficiaries Does Not Survive the Security Owner(s). If the beneficiary or beneficiaries does not survive the security owner(s), the security or securities will be treated as belonging to the decedent owner's estate at the death of the owner. Transfer requires: (a) an endorsement by the security owner's executor or administrator (with acceptable medallion signature guarantee) and (b) any other documents required by New Horizon Transfer for transfers under its then current procedures, which may include evidence satisfactory to New Horizon Transfer that the beneficiary or beneficiaries did not survive the security owner(s).

Protections to New Horizon Transfer and Securities Issuer. You agree that in offering to register securities in TOD form, New Horizon Transfer and the securities issuer shall be afforded all protections provided for in the TOD Security Registration Act. For the avoidance of doubt, New Horizon Transfer shall have no duty to: attempt to locate any TOD beneficiary or determine whether a non-surviving TOD beneficiary had lineal descendants who survived any security owner; determine any fact or law that would cause any security owner's TOD beneficiary designation to be revoked in whole or in part as to any person because of change in marital status or other reason, or that would qualify or disqualify any person from entitlement to receive a security or securities under a security owner's transfer, or that would vary a distribution provided in that security owner's request; transfer a security or securities to any TOD beneficiary if it receives notice from any claimant as to an interest in such security or securities.

Each security owner agrees that New Horizon Transfer shall be fully released and discharged from all liability upon payment to the designated TOD beneficiary or beneficiaries and on behalf of himself/herself, his/her estate, heirs, executors, administrators, beneficiaries and assigns to indemnify and hold harmless New Horizon Transfer, its directors, officers, owners, employees, agents, affiliates, successors and assigns from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) that it may incur by acting in accordance with any such security owner's instructions hereunder.
